STEWARDSHIP SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

“For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.” 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

St. Marta and St. Maria's Women's Crafting Group - You are welcome to participate in our St Marta and St. Maria's Women's Crafting Group We meet on Mondays at 6:30 PM in the Sacred Heart Hall. Materials will be provided; no childcare services will be available. You must be vaccinated against COVID-19 or must wear a mask.

REFLEXIONES DEL BOLETÍN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

“Porque el Espíritu que Dios nos ha dado no nos hace cobardes, sino que él es para nosotros fuente de poder, amor y dominio propio.” 2 Timoteo 1:7

Muchos de nosotros ponemos nuestra Fe en compartimientos, solo la sacamos a relucir cuando atendemos la Misa o cuando atendemos un evento parroquial. Ser un buen administrador requiere disciplina y esforzarnos para poner a Dios primero en todo - todo el tiempo. La próxima vez que esté en una fiesta del vecindario o del trabajo o de compras, ¿podrían sus palabras o acciones señalarle a los demás que usted es un siervo bueno y leal de nuestro Señor?

Grupo de Manualidades de Santa Marta y Santa María - Grupo de Artesanía de Mujeres de Santa Marta y Santa María - Le invitamos a participar en nuestro Grupo de Artesanía de Mujeres de Santa Marta y Santa María. Nos reunimos los lunes a las 6:30 p. m. en el Salón del Sagrado Corazón. Se proporcionarán materiales; no habrá servicios de cuidado de niños disponibles. Debe estar vacunado contra COVID-19 o debe usar una máscara.

SAINT LADISLAUS CHURCH
@ HOLY FAMILY PARISH
A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth
October 2, 2022

“The Lord God answered me, ‘See, [it will come to pass] the brash [and the arrogant], who have no integrity [they will stumble left to their own devices]; but the just one who is righteous by their faith shall live.’” Hb 2:4

But then, who are the faithful and righteous servants of God?

“So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done [only] what we were obliged to do.’”
Lk17:10

Probably the first thing that jumps out at us is Jesus’ use of the word ‘unprofitable servant’. What is Jesus saying in so few words? What does profit have to do with service? Or how can service be more than what it is?

To answer this question, we must back track and recall what Jesus says to His disciples in the Parable of the Talents (Mt 25:14-30), where He speaks to us about the gifts of the Spirit and the individual skills and talents that we turn into good works. These good works, to spread God’s truth of the Gospel through our talents to all who desire and are open to hear it, are the profits of the well invested treasure of God’s will and commandments for us.

Therefore, it is prudent and righteous to keep His commandments, but this only benefits the servant. Hence, Jesus’ denunciation of the servant, who only does what he is commanded. However, the profitable servant takes what is handed to him, his talents and skills and knowledge, and turns a profit with it many times its self-worth by rewarding those around him in spiritual and worldly needs, by sacrificing time and effort that is not paid in human terms, by investing in unseen treasures of prayer and self-denial, so that those who do not see may be saved by his works of charity. This, then is the profitable servant Jesus wants us to be, not the self-serving and self-righteous, who lord over others with their bestowed position, status and wealth to show they are better or more worthy than them, but rather the humble that make and turn a profit of the smallest of gifts with their spiritual person.

“The person that is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones.” Lk 16:10a
