May 21, 2023
The Ascension of the Lord

"I am praying for them..." (John 17:9)

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Pray in good times and in bad. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation, not just the last resort. Pray for friends and family and for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank, and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you.

SAINT LADISLAUS CHURCH
@ HOLY FAMILY PARISH
A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth
May 21, 2023

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Jesus said to His Disciples, “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower (the caretaker).” He cuts away the branches that bear no fruit and rob the vine of nutrients and water, and He prunes the fruit-bearing branches to bear more fruit. “You are already pruned, because of the Word I have given you. Remain in me as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing!” Jn 15:1-5 “Father give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that he may give eternal life to all [whom] you gave him. Now this is eternal life: that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent Jesus Christ.” Jn 17:1b-3

It is difficult for us to understand from a purely natural standpoint the universal significance of Jesus’ words here. From a physical point-of-view it seems rather obvious that pruned and cut branches don’t survive unless they remain on the vine, and that even healthy fruit bearing branches need some pruning to keep them active. However, far beyond the obvious is the supernatural understanding that Jesus places before us of how the universe interacts on a grand scale, and that despite the grandeur of all that physical presence, God the Father still cares enough about us to keep us connected to Him through His son Jesus Christ.

Now, if we were to look down into of the vastness of the universe, looking deeper and deeper for our role as humans, we would quickly realize and understand the nothingness to which Jesus alludes. Without His life-giving body of the vine or in our Catholic perspective, the Eucharist, we are not only lost to death and destruction, but have no recourse from that nothingness here on earth unless we do His “will”. So, if we choose Christ, we can grapple with our powerless pathetic lives and transform them to a shared love for each other tethered to Jesus who has been given all life, power and authority over the universe. Or we can ambitiously pursue a life of debauchery at others’ expense seeking human knowledge, fame, wealth and power at all cost including quashing those who get in our way: consuming life and bearing no spiritual fruit. These twigs the Father will cut and burn to fertilize the vine.

Fortunately for us, Christ is the head of the Catholic Church. It is His teachings and Word that we obey, sacrificing our lives to uphold His commandments to have eternal life with Him.

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, ... And behold, I am always with you, until the end of the world!” Mt 28:19-20

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations ...

– Matthew 28:19
