Bishop's Annual Appeal 2026
ONE IN CHRIST:
Called to Love and Serve

Jesus gave us a perfect example to follow, constantly demonstrating love and care for those around Him. Much of the work that is done through our Church to advocate for respect for life, consoling those who are in hospital or prisons, and providing for the poor and vulnerable depends on the sharing of our financial resources through the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a gift today.

Campaña Anual del Obispo 2026
UNO EN CRISTO:
Llamados a Amar y Servir

Jesús nos dio un ejemplo perfecto a seguir, demostrando constantemente amor y cuidado por quienes lo rodean. Gran parte del trabajo que se realiza a través de nuestra Iglesia para abogar por el respeto a la vida, consolar a quienes están en hospitales o prisiones y atender a los pobres y vulnerables depende de compartir nuestros recursos financieros a través de la Campaña Anual del Obispo. Por favor considere en oración un aporte hoy.

POPE LEO'S INTENTION

A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth

Palm Sunday

“My soul is deathly sorrowful. Remain with me and keep vigilant watch’... When He returned to his disciples He found them asleep. He said to Peter, ‘So, not even an hour could you keep watch with me?! Be vigilant and pray that you may not fall to temptation, for the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak!’” Mt 26:38, 40-41

Just because we can anticipate with great certainty an outcome about to unfold doesn't mean others have the same insight we do regarding the same action they are about to take. No matter how sincere, or convincing and or passionate we may try to be in our explanation about the outcome of a path of action, we can not expect to find understanding as an answer. Our success is limited by the faith others have in our person. Despite seeing the 'iceberg' ahead and trying to warn or advise those responsible to be watchful not to make a bad decision, very few listen if at all to our warnings or heed our advice. At best, we will be dismissed, overruled and marginalized for not participating in groupthink. What will be the result of our efforts? Well, perhaps a couple of months or possibly years later these individuals may come back to tell us, how right we were. Okay, but how does that help? Did they change their ways as a result of realizing that we had their best interest in mind?

Probably, not! So what is Jesus telling the Apostles here? Why is He singling out Peter?

Firstly, Jesus is overcome by sorrow as he foresees his imminent torture and crucifixion, but also because of the impending loss or scattering of his chosen Apostles who he loves dearly. He feels their disillusionment and empathizes with them. He tries to impress upon his favorite three the gravity of the situation so that they will not be so traumatized that they dare not continue his work and that of the One who sent him. Secondly, Jesus is upset with Peter's boldness to defend him even to death just a short time earlier, when he will end up denying that he is his friend and associate, yet even now he can't perceive the magnitude of the situation about to transpire after repeated warnings. Thirdly, while Jesus knows and wishes to do the Father's will, he still has human thoughts, as the fear of a gruesome death overtakes him. He tries to convey these feelings of anxiety and fear for the sake of his Disciples when they too will have to face their own martyrdom. Unfortunately, the Disciples are not mentally ready or enlightened to these events and will only recall this later with the help of the Spirit.

Therefore the imitation of Christ here is the understanding of humanity's role in Creation: It is not man's goal in the universe to hold on to the gifts he receives from His Creator – they are to be shared with others and returned with the fruits of accomplishment to His Glory. Power, wisdom and knowledge all come from Him; it is not for us to hoard, boast and hold on to. It is to be used with prudence and returned with sacrificial love or agape towards each other. And so in the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus must now empty himself even further of his godliness to allow his captors to overpower him. He must relinquish all his power, knowledge and wisdom to the Father and trust in His word. He must be the first among all men to freely give up everything that he received from the Father and trust His word when he has done His will and enters the Father's Glory. Jesus, the Christ is now our example to follow, and He is our support when “The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”
