SAINT LADISLAUS CHURCH
@ HOLY FAMILY PARISH
 A Sunday Reflection
 by István Horváth
 Third Sunday of Easter

“With that [the breaking of bread] their eyes were opened and they recognized Him ...” Lk 24:31a, 35b

Last week, as we reflected on our lack of faith in God with a tendency towards denying the good and accepting the bad, we see this very truth playing out for us in the Gospel this week by two disciples on their way to Emmaus. Fortunately for them, the risen Christ appears to them, chastises them for their lack of faith and then goes on to put into perspective how all of the scriptures and the prophets allude to the very facts that transpired in Jerusalem. Lk 24:25-27

When will we truly understand?! Jesus is Lord and God.

Even in the face of reason, we regularly put the burden of proof on the truth and the good, and offer disbelief to shown fact, even in the presence of clear evidence.

So, how can we change? Here is a recipe:

1). Ask for forgiveness. Beginning with John preaching Baptism and Repentance, his words are followed by Jesus proclaiming, “The Kingdom of God is at hand.” Mt 3:2 Jesus, The Word of God, strengthens John’s and the prophets’ words with new precepts and understanding of God’s Commandments (Mt Ch 5&6);

The Gospel of Luke recounts Peter’s words after he is filled with the Spirit. He says, “Repent and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 2:37-39; 3:19; 8:17

Because through repentance we have a change of heart and mind towards God and all His goodness, our conscience can also be cleansed.

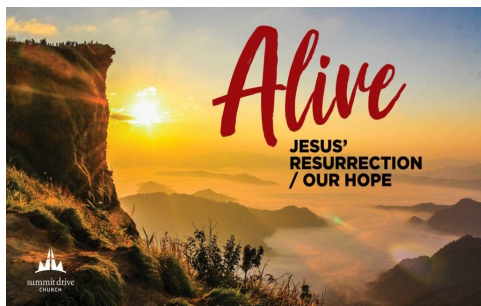

2). Make recompense and want absolution from the Father.
Jn 6:65

3). Love one another and remain in Him.
Jn 15:12, 17; 15:4-5

4). Stay in Communion with Him: in a state of sanctifying grace. Jn 6:54, 56, 58

5). Act as a disciple in duty and in mission and receive His promise. Jn 17:18,20; 17:3, 24

Let our eyes and our minds be opened by The Word of Jesus, Our Lord!
