SAINT LADISLAUS CHURCH
@ HOLY FAMILY PARISH
A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth
Trinity Sunday

To be born and reborn into the Trinitarian God by water, blood and spirit is the only way to God's Kingdom (1Jn 5:6-8); that is what Jesus is explaining to Nicodemus, a teacher and elder of the Jewish faith, to contemplate and comprehend (Jn 3:5). But what is this mystery and how are we Christians born again?

We frequently make the sign of the cross on ourselves and on others in the name of the Trinity. But do we know what it is we are doing or why we do it? Is it just ritual? No. It is the sign of our being, our stature and our heredity in the one true God of Hosts (Elohim or Élóim==The Living). We are

His likeness. Therefore, we are baptized by water in Baptism and by the Spirit in Confirmation and by the Blood of Jesus on the cross in the Eucharist. Water is the life of the world and gives life to all living things. Where there is water there is God, the Father and Creator of all life. Gn 1:2 Blood is the life of the bodies created (Lv 17:11) and incarnated by God, the Son, through whom all creation originated and began. Col 1:15-17 Spirit is the breath of life that God, the Holy Spirit breathes into all His creatures that He elevates to Himself. Jn 6:63, Jb 33:4, Is 42:5 The three persons of God are one in being (consubstantial), and we are also part of God when we are born into the created world. Rom 12:5 Therefore, we are with God before we are born into the world (Jer 1:5) and have the power to remain in Him through free will of our own once we are born.

Free will is a form of love. God creates through His infinite will of love living beings in His likeness, who share this same love. We are these wills of love. And since all that God creates is through His son, Jesus Christ, we too are created in Christ. Eph 2:10 Once created, we have the power or the will to share in His blood sacrifice of love on the cross (to be re-born), as long as we remain in Him Jn 15:4 (keep His commandments Jn 14:15,21) and He remains in us (through the Eucharist Jn 6:56). The Spirit of God is the love we yearn for in knowing Jesus Christ, the Incarnation of God the Father. Jn 5:24, 14:27, Col 1:15 This is the mystery of the Trinity of God's love for mankind, our re-birth in Spirit. What a beautiful labor of love we are part of as Children of God. 1 Jn 3:1
