Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention for November 2026
Theme: For the Proper Use of Wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

La intención de oración del Papa León para noviembre de 2026
Tema: Por el uso adecuado de las riquezas

Oremos por el uso adecuado de las riquezas,
para que, sin sucumbir a la tentación del egoísmo, se pongan siempre al servicio del bien común y de la solidaridad con los más necesitados.

A Reflection
by Istvan Horvath

ALL SAINTS DAY

A truly hallowed evening and day: October 31st and November 1st, a solemn remembrance of the martyred and saintly souls for Christ.

Who are the saints of All-Saints Day?
"They are [the servants of God whether named or unnamed (canonized or not)], who have survived the time of great distress (who have persevered in faith and charity of love); whose robes have been washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 7:14

So, when we hear the Parable of the Wedding Feast on the 28th Sunday we can now understand Revelations as it relates to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the New Covenant, namely that the guest who is found not to have the proper attire for the "Wedding Feast" (The Holy Mass) is bound and thrown out into the darkness by the King. Mt 22:1-14

This action is not due to his monetary means to purchase proper clothes for the event, but rather his unwillingness to act with the means that he has been provided. The allegory is of one who has not prepared himself for the Feast even though they have been given the garments (the sacraments of the Church) to do so. In fact in those days, all who were invited to attend a noble's or king's reception were given proper clothes to wear to the event. This was the honor of the invitation.

The conclusion to Jesus' parable can be understood to mean, that while many have been called to a life in Christ, only those who use the sacraments to prepare themselves (eg. Confession: to be in a state of sanctifying grace) can partake in the "Supper of the Lamb" (Communion: to enter into union with Jesus' sacrifice on the cross) with the bridegroom of the Church, Jesus Christ.

By repentance and good deeds we can clothe ourselves in the wedding attire necessary to attend the banquet of Christ given by the Father: these are The Beatitudes. Mt 5:3-12 Then this is the "wedding attire" we seek: clothed in Christ's redemption for our sins.
