Our Lord. Amen.

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention for November 2026

Theme: For the Proper Use of Wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth,
that not succumbing
to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

La intención de oración del Papa León para noviembre de 2026

Tema: Por el uso adecuado de las riquezas

Oremos por el uso adecuado de las riquezas, para que, sin sucumbir a la tentación del egoísmo, se pongan siempre al servicio del bien común y de la solidaridad con los más necesitados.

A Reflection
by Istvan Horvath

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Be attentive [and be prepared], for you know not the day nor the hour [the Lord calls you]." Mt 25:13

Jesus' Parable of the Ten Virgins seems to indicate that preparedness is the key to gaining entrance to the Kingdom of Heaven, because the wise virgins brought extra flasks of oil for their lamps in case they may need to use them the whole night through. However, they too fell asleep while the bridegroom was delayed, and they were not much for charity when they were asked to share. What is Jesus saying about preparedness and attentiveness if it is not for charity towards your neighbor?

The answer lies in the understanding of the parables in sequence to each other not just on their own merit. In the events leading to the Parousia, the Second Coming of the Son of Man there is to be a time of calamities followed by great tribulation, and even though one does not know the hour or the day, the faithful servants will be the ones who continue His works of good in the face of all this turmoil. Mt Ch 24 The faithful servants will not despair or lead others to despair, but prepare their souls for the coming of the Bridegroom, Jesus Christ. This preparation can not be shared, it must be done by each his own, and even if we stumble or fall asleep, we must get up and continue our vigilance. The final test of good deeds is the Parable of Talents, where if we used the gifts granted us to the best of our ability and invested them well in helping ourselves, as well as others towards acquiring eternal life, we are assured of attaining it. Mt 25:14-30 Then comes the Judgment, granted the Son by the Father to separate the goats from the sheep. Mt 25:31-46 The goats that devour life for their own benefit and consume all who are around them into the same dismal mire, suffer the same wrath prepared for the devil and his agents.
